Meet Your Bartlett Arborist Representative

Aaron Smith

Forestry and tree care have shaped Aaron's life since his youth, working on a tree farm and planting across Northern British Columbia. He completed the Arboriculture program at Kwantlen Polytechnic with top honors and received the Wesley Hawley Memorial Award. Aaron joined Bartlett Tree Experts in 2016 as a Grounds Person and advanced to Arborist Representative through dedication, hands-on experience, and a passion for sustainable landscape management.

Aaron is an ISA Certified Arborist and qualified tree risk assessor. As an Arborist Representative, he brings deep knowledge and a passion for arboriculture to help clients achieve their landscape goals. Whether maintaining healthy trees or managing risk, Aaron ensures expert, personalized care with a focus on safety, tree health, and industry best practices.

Outside of his professional life, Aaron enjoys spending time in nature, whether hiking, camping, or paddling through local waters. Aaron's personal connection to the land and trees continues to inspire his work, and he strives to bring this enthusiasm into every project he undertakes.
