Meet Your Bartlett Arborist Representative

Asher Gotzmer

Asher began his career with Bartlett in 2016. Growing up in Northern California, he has always been passionate about trees and wildlife and knew he wanted to find a career that allowed him to share this passion. This led him to his career with Bartlett, where he found he could use this passion to help improve clients' landscapes with scientific care.

Asher is an ISA Certified Arborist and Tree Worker, and is Tree Risk Assessment qualified. He graduated from U.C. Davis, focusing his studies in Environmental Science and Management.

Asher enjoys spending time with his wife, Monica, two daughters and their dog living in the Westside of Santa Barbara. He loves that he can help service clients in the same area that he lives.
