Meet Your Bartlett Arborist Representative

Trevor Coey

Starting his career in 1999 with Mt. View Tree Service as a Groundsperson, he worked his way to Climber, Crew Foreman, and finally to Arborist Representative with Bartlett Tree Experts.

Trevor is a Certified Arborist with the International Society of Arboriculture and a certified tree care safety professional.

Trevor's passion for the outdoors started early, growing up in Victoria. Now living in Nanaimo, Trevor continues to bring his experience and dedication to tree care as Bartlett Tree Experts expands into the region. "What I enjoy about this job is that there is always something new to learn. I am outside rain or shine, and I can pass on valuable information to help people keep their trees and landscapes healthy."
