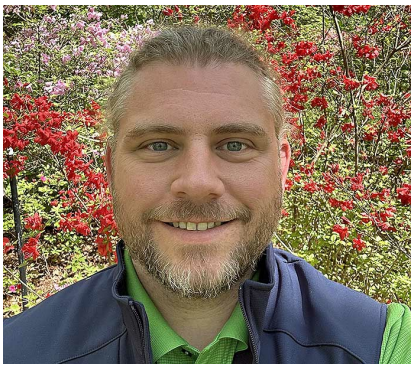
Meet Your Bartlett Arborist Representative

Chris Teter



Chris holds a degree in Environmental Science with a focus on Plant Science. His experience in plant health care ranges from caring for large multi-acre estates, commercial properties, and residential homes. He brings the honor and work ethic of his time as an Eagle Scout and Navy Veteran to his clients' properties, utilizing the highest professional integrity to protect their valuable living assets. Chris joined Bartlett April of 2025.

Chris holds the certifications of ISA Master Arborist, CT Certified Arborist, UConn Master Gardener, NOFA AOLCP, CNLA Certified Horticulturalist, and ISA TRAQ.

When not inspecting plant material or managing his Crews, he is gardening, hiking, or relaxing with his wife and son in Easton.
