Meet Your Bartlett Arborist Representative

Rebekah Schulz

Rebekah is a Long Island native who grew up on the South Shore in a small waterfront community. She has a Bachelor of Technology in plant science from SUNY Cobleskill. Rebekah has been in the field as a certified arborist since 2014. She joined Bartlett Tree Experts in 2017 as an Arborist Representative.

An ISA Certified Arborist, Rebekah is also Tree Risk Assessment Qualified (TRAQ) and holds a 3A Pesticide Applicators license. She is dedicated to helping clients make informed decisions to maintain their trees and shrubs. Rebekah is an avid tree lover with special interests in plant health care, mature noble trees, and balanced landscapes. Her professional affiliations include Long Island Arboricultural Association (LIAA) and Cornell Cooperative Extension of Suffolk County.

In her free time, Rebekah enjoys spending time with family doing any variety of outdoor activities. She also finds volunteer work very rewarding and has a great history working with organizations like Habitat for Humanity and Americorps NCCC. She hopes to pass that spirit on to her son.
