Meet Your Bartlett Arborist Representative

Ethan Wall

Ethan graduated from Penn State Mont Alto University with a Forest Technology degree and has been working in the tree care industry since. He has held various roles in the industry, working in residential tree care, and helping to manage the street trees for the NYC Parks Department. Ethan joined Bartlett in 2024 and worked at an office in Pennsylvania before joining the team in Elmsford, New York.

He is an ISA certified arborist, ISA TRAQ certified, and is committed to continued education in the industry. Ethan is passionate about species specific programs and thinking outside of the box to solve your landscape conundrums. He takes a holistic approach to plant health and is interested in using the latest science to make your trees as healthy as possible.

Ethan enjoys being outside, reading, playing paintball, and exploring the NYC Metro area.
