SCIENTIFIC TREE CARE SINCE 1907

Meet Your Bartlett Arborist Representative

Alex Bischer

Alex has a Bachelor of Science degree in wildlife conservation from Juniata College and a Master of Science degree in Conservation Biology and Environmental Science from the University of Hawaii at Hilo. He started his career with Bartlett Tree Experts in 2021. Alex has gained valuable arboriculture knowledge and experience as he has advanced within the company, starting as a Plant Healthcare Specialist prior to becoming an Arborist Representative.

During his time with Bartlett, Alex obtained commercial pesticide applicator licenses in both New York and New Jersey. Backed by the resources of the Bartlett Research Laboratories, he uses his knowledge and passion to help clients make informed decisions and achieve their tree, shrub and landscape goals.

Alex is an outdoor and sports enthusiast. He has played soccer since he was 6 years old and loves watching his favorite football team, the Pittsburgh Steelers. In his free time, he can often be found enjoying the great outdoors fishing, hiking, and traveling with his wife.
