Meet Your Bartlett Arborist Representative

Scott Tapp

Scott Tapp has more than 35 years of experience in tree care. He began his career at Bartlett as a Plant Health Care Specialist and Tree Crew Leader. Inspired by Bartlett's scientific approach to tree and shrub care he became an International Society of Arboriculture Certified Arborist. Scott advanced to the role of Arborist Representative and earned the New Jersey Licensed Tree Expert credential.

Additional qualifications include the ISA Tree Risk Assessment Qualification and the Prescription Pruning Qualification. Scott has served clients throughout Mercer County for Bartlett Tree Experts since 2003. As an active leader in the tree care industry, he is a past president of the NJ Arborists/International Society of Arboriculture and a past recipient of the NJAISA Arborist of the Year award.

Scott currently represents New Jersey on the International Society of Arboriculture Component Council. He also chairs the New Jersey Tree Climbing Championship and the NJAISA Volunteer Day each year.
