Meet Your Bartlett Arborist Representative

Ben DeVries

Ben has a Bachelor of Science from GVSU where he studied Natural Resource Management. After graduating in 2012, he started full-time with Bartlett Tree Experts as a Climber. Prior to becoming an Arborist Representative, Ben also held positions as a Crew Leader, Plant Health Care Specialist, and Local Office Safety Coordinator for our Michigan offices.

As an ISA Certified Arborist, Ben enjoys working to maintain and improve the health and beauty of clientsâ€™ landscapes. He has a love for wildlife and sharing his knowledge with others. He has been a Certified Tree Safety Professional since 2021, and Tree Risk Assessment Qualified since 2024.

In his free time, Ben enjoys spending time with his family including his wife and two boys. Together, they enjoy traveling to national parks and camping in backcountry destinations.
