Meet Your Bartlett Arborist Representative

Chloe Poole

Chloe was born and raised in Nashville, Tennessee. She earned her Bachelor of Science in Forestry with a concentration in Urban Forestry from the University of Tennessee in 2015. After graduating, she began her career in arboriculture in the Chicago area, gaining valuable experience in tree care and management. In 2020, Chloe joined Bartlett Tree Experts in Charleston, South Carolina, where she further developed her expertise.

Chloe is excited to serve the community she has always called home. Chloe is an ISA Certified Arborist and holds her Tree Risk Assessment Qualification (TRAQ). Her strong background in arboriculture allows her to expertly evaluate trees and develop customized Plant Health Care programs tailored to each client's property.

Chloe currently lives in the Bellevue area with her husband. In her free time, Chloe enjoys playing the harp, cooking, baking, and exploring all that Tennessee has to offer.
