Meet Your Bartlett Arborist Representative

Christopher Fischer

Chris entered the tree care industry over 30 years ago as a ground person at Weston Arborists. As his career there progressed Chris learned all facets of both tree care and business operations. He and his colleagues joined Bartlett Tree Experts when the company acquired Weston Arborists in 2022. Chris is the Local Office Manager and continues to work with the same dedicated arborist team which operates like family.

As an Arborist Representative, Chris helps clients make educated decisions for the care of their trees and shrubs. His knowledge, experience, and people skills have made him a trusted advisor to clients, especially as they see their properties transforming into what they envision both for now and the future.

In his free time, Chris enjoys hiking and relaxing at the beach.
