Meet Your Bartlett Arborist Representative

Dominick Gamba

Dominick grew up in the Roaring Fork Valley region of Colorado. Helping with his family's viticulture, he developed a passion for caring for plants at a young age. Dominick holds a Bachelor of Science in Environmental Biology with a minor in Sustainable Agriculture from Fort Lewis College. Dominick moved to Michigan in 2014 and has been in the tree industry since 2017. He gained knowledge and experience in plant health care working throughout the Midwest and Southeast. Dominick joined Bartlett Tree Experts in 2021 and held the position of Plant Health Care Specialist prior to Arborist Representative.

An ISA Certified Arborist, Dominick is passionate about helping people solve their plant health issues. He loves meeting with clients and sharing his knowledge to help them make informed decisions to maintain the health and beauty of their trees and shrubs.

In his free time, Dominick loves spending time with his wife and three children. Having been a white-water raft guide in Colorado, Dominick has an affinity for any water related activities. He also enjoys gardening, landscaping, and playing with his English Bulldog, "Cookie".
