Meet Your Bartlett Arborist Representative

Eddie White

Ed grew up in West Newbury and developed a love for trees at a young age. He attended Paul Smith's College in New York where he was a competitive timber sports athlete; he earned degrees in Arboriculture and Landscape Management. After graduation in 2018, Ed joined Bartlett Tree Experts as a Groundperson. He worked his way up, holding positions as a Climber, Crew Leader, and Plant Health Care Specialist before becoming an Arborist Representative.

Ed is dedicated to caring for clients' properties and helping them make informed decisions about their landscapes.

He is active in the West Newbury community as a volunteer firefighter. His hobbies include making maple syrup and apple cider on his farm.
