Meet Your Bartlett Arborist Representative

Jackson Zuber

A 7th generation Texan and native of the Texas hill country, Jack has always had a strong interest in trees and the outdoors. He graduated from Stephen F. Austin State University with a Bachelor of Science in forestry with an emphasis in urban forestry. Jack joined Bartlett Tree Experts in 2020 as an intern and has since held positions as a Plant Healthcare Specialist, Arborist Climber, and Local Office Safety Manager prior to becoming an Arborist Representative.

Jack is an ISA Certified Arborist, Texas Oak Wilt Qualified, Tree Risk Assessment Qualified (TRAQ), and a Texas Department of Agriculture Certified Applicator. He is dedicated to meeting customers' needs and exceeding their expectations by improving the health and aesthetics of their trees.

In his free time, Jack enjoys spending time with friends and family, fly fishing, hunting, and seeing live music. Jack's favorite tree is the majestic bald cypress that line the banks of the rivers in the Texas hill country.
