Meet Your Bartlett Arborist Representative

Matthew Chase

Matt earned a degree in Arboriculture and Community Forestry Management from UMASS Amherst. He has worked in the green industry since 1998, joining Bartlett Tree Experts in 2008 as an Arborist Climber and Crew Leader. After gaining diverse experience across the U.S., he returned to Bartlett in 2023 as an Arborist Representative in Waldwick, New Jersey.

Matt is an ISA Board Certified Master Arborist, New Jersey Licensed Tree Expert, Certified Pesticide Applicator, and Certified Tree Care Safety Professional. He is dedicated to helping clients maintain safe, healthy landscapes and is passionate about educating them and providing tailored recommendations that prioritize tree preservation.

Matt enjoys camping, fishing, and hiking with his family and Labrador, as well as woodworking, golfing, and gardening with his two daughters.
