Meet Your Bartlett Arborist Representative

Michael Christianson

Michael was born and raised in the Philomath/Corvallis area of the Willamette Valley. His interest in tree care began in 1997 when he was in the Forestry Program at Philomath High School. In 2004, he entered the tree care industry with an apprenticeship. Michael built his career working his way up, he was an Arborist Climber and a Crew Leader prior to becoming an Arborist Representative. Michael was a past employee of Buena Vista Arbor Care and joined Bartlett Tree Experts as part of the acquisition of Buena Vista Arbor Care in 2021.

A Certified Arborist with the International Society of Arboriculture (ISA) since 2008, Michael enjoys drawing on his knowledge and experience to provide advice and solutions that help clients make informed decisions about their tree and shrub care needs.

In his free time, Mike enjoys fishing, camping, woodworking, and spending time with his wife and two children.
