Meet Your Bartlett Arborist Representative

Stephen Glass

It was during his time at Southern Polytechnic State University in Georgia that Stephen discovered his true calling in Arboriculture. He started his career in the tree service industry in 2010 and enjoyed the knowledge and hard work that the industry demanded. Stephen continued to develop field experience as a climber and crew leader and then owned his own tree service company from 2015 until joining Bartlett Tree Experts in 2021. Stephen held positions including Local Office Safety Coordinator, and Division Trainer prior to Arborist Representative.

Stephen is an ISA Certified Arborist. He is also Tree Risk Assessment Qualified (TRAQ) and is a Certified Tree Safety Professional (CTSP). Stephen is dedicated to assisting clients achieve their landscape goals while maintaining the health and natural beauty of their trees and shrubs.

In his free time, when Stephen is not at home with his family, he enjoys riding his motorcycle down Tallahassee's many canopied roads.
