Meet Your Bartlett Arborist Representative

Tyler Smith

Tyler has a bachelor's degree from Colgate University, and a graduate certificate in Urban Forestry from Oregon State University. He joined Bartlett Tree Experts in 2021 and held positions an Arborist Climber and Crew Leader prior to Arborist Representative.

Tyler is a certified Maine State Arborist and a certified pesticide applicator. He is passionate about all aspects of tree care and enjoys helping clients keep their trees healthy in the face of challenges ranging from urban pollution to invasive pests. Tyler has a particular interest in maintaining a healthy ecosystem through growing naturalistic, native landscapes.

In his free time, Tyler enjoys rock climbing, playing music, and spending time camping and hiking in the outdoors. He and his wife live in South Portland where Tyler sits on the South Portland Landcare Management Advisory Committee, which advises the city council on issues related to the city's Landcare Management ordinance.
