Meet Your Bartlett Arborist Representative

David Helliar

David Helliar has been involved in tree care since operating his own lawn and tree care company in high school. As a college student he found himself immersed in the arboriculture program at Penn State. After earning a degree in Technical Forestry, David began his career with Bartlett Tree Experts in 1985. David is a Certified Arborist-Representative and a Certified Tree Safety Professional. David has worked on numerous Arbor Day and Earth Day projects and is an Eagle Scout. David greatly enjoys working with clients and sharing information to assist them in beautifying their properties.
