Meet Your Bartlett Arborist Representative

Ethan Bradley

Ethan grew up in Lebanon, Pennsylvania, where he developed a lifelong appreciation for nature and the outdoors. He earned a Bachelor of Science in Forest Management from Penn State University and began his career in the tree care industry in 2009. Early in his career, he became an ISA Certified Arborist, reflecting his commitment to professional excellence and industry best practices.

Ethan joined Bartlett Tree Experts in 2021. During his time with Bartlett, he has served as a Climber, Bucket Truck Operator, Crew Leader, Plant Health Care Specialist, and Local Office Safety Coordinator before advancing to his current role as Arborist Representative. His education, hands-on experience, and passion for arboriculture allow him to help clients maintain healthy, safe, and beautiful landscapes.

Outside of work, Ethan enjoys spending time with his wife and their two dogs. An avid traveler, he also enjoys kayaking, fishing, and camping with family and friends. His lifelong appreciation for the outdoors and commitment to helping others make him a resource for homeowners throughout the Shenandoah Valley.
