Gary Hill

After working in the Landscape/Tree work industry Gary attended Askham Bryan College in York to consolidate the basic skills he had learned. He left the college with a National Diploma in Amenity Horticulture & Arboriculture. During this time he was involved in two Silver Gilt Medal winning gardens at RHS Hampton Court and Chelsea Flower shows, and added to his skills in Arboriculture working in the north west and Midlands. He started working for Bartlett shortly after leaving College gaining extensive 'hands on' experience, which led to him being promoted to a management position in 2000. Gary has been a guest speaker for a number of local gardening clubs and is a member of the Arboricultural Association and has earned the office Arboricultural Association, 'Approved Contractor' Status, ensuring quality throughout the business. Gary works with his clients to provide a high level of tree care, offering Bartlett's unique research based approach to tree and shrub care and pest and disease management.
