Meet Your Bartlett Arborist Representative

Jason Coiner

Jason Coiner, a lifelong Virginia resident, has been involved in both the tree care and landscape industry for 27 years. He started in the nursery and landscape business while in high school before earning his Bachelor of Science in Horticulture at Virginia Tech in 2005. He joined Bartlett Tree Experts 18 years ago to expand on his experience and knowledge of trees.

He quickly advanced through the ranks, becoming an ISA Certified Arborist and Tree Risk Assessment Qualified. Jason was promoted to be the Local Manager of our Fredericksburg operation in October of 2012. Attracted to Bartlett's scientific approach to tree care, Jason continues to learn and grow within the company and the industry to best serve Fredericksburg and the surrounding communities.

Outside of work, Jason enjoys spending time with his wife Stephanie and their two bird dogs, Dale and Percy. Jason is an avid outdoorsman and has a passion for dog training, hunting, and jiu jitsu.
