

Meet Your Bartlett Arborist Representative

Mark Santoro

Mark is a graduate of the Stockbridge School of Agriculture and University of Massachusetts -- Amherst, where he graduated with an associate's degree in Arboriculture and Community Forestry, and a bachelor's degree in urban forestry. He started in our Billerica, Massachusetts office in 2019. Since then, Mark has held roles of increasing responsibility, and most recently was a Local Office Safety Coordinator -- responsible for carrying out all aspects of our Safety Program.

He is a Massachusetts Certified Arborist and developed a love for trees and landscapes at a young age. Mark's knowledge and experience allow him to provide clients with expert arboricultural recommendations for their tree and shrub care needs.

In his free time, Mark enjoys snowmobiling in the winter and riding his Harley the rest of the year.
