Meet Your Bartlett Arborist Representative

Matthew Rodda

Matt Rodda has been in the Green Industry since 1985. He ran his own landscaping company for four years and in 1989 he worked for a local tree care company as a climber where he learned the basics of Arboriculture. Always intrigued by the science of tree preservation, he took an opportunity with the Bartlett Tree Expert Company in 1992 to pursue his passion. After four years in the field he became an Arborist Representative and shortly thereafter was promoted to Office Manager where he continues to service and consult with his clients of Union County. He is a Nationally Certified Arborist, Certified Tree Expert, Certified Tree Care Safety Professional and a Certified Pesticide Applicator in New York and New Jersey. He has been involved in the care of the World Trade Center Memorial Trees in Millstone, NJ prior to their plantings at the World Trade Center Memorial site. Matt also sits on the Shade Tree Board of his hometown of Bridgewater.
