Meet Your Bartlett Arborist Representative

Michael Bartlett

Michael Bartlett is an experienced Arborist Representative, bringing nearly three decades of expertise to the field of arboriculture. With 29 years of hands-on experience and over 25 years as a Certified Arborist, Michael has built a career rooted in both technical knowledge and a passion for trees.

As an ISA Certified Arborist, Michael approaches every client interaction with integrity, transparency, and a genuine desire to help trees thrive. Michael's philosophy centers on building lasting relationships with customers through trust and tailored solutions that meet both aesthetic and ecological goals.

His personal interests span from fishing, hiking, biking, and golfing to camping and wood carving. He's also passionate about music, travel, good food, and spending time with family and friends.
