

Meet Your Bartlett Arborist Representative

Michael Leibfreid

Michael grew up in Western Pennsylvania and earned his degree in Horticulture from the Pennsylvania College of Technology. He joined Bartlett after graduating in 2006. As his career advanced, Michael held positions including Arborist Climber, Crew Leader, and Plant Health Care Specialist prior to being promoted to Arborist Representative.

An ISA Board Certified Master Arborist, Michael is also ISA Tree Risk Assessment Qualified, a Maryland Licensed Tree Expert, and Maryland Certified Pesticide Applicator. He enjoys using his knowledge and extensive field experience to help property owners make informed decisions to maintain the health and beauty of their trees and shrubs.

In his free time, Michael enjoys spending his time gardening, hiking, and canoeing with his wife Lyndsay and their two dogs Finn and Olive.
