Meet Your Bartlett Arborist Representative

Pat Neech

Pat attended Cumbria University in the Lake District studying the environment and outdoor leadership. After three years, he graduated with a 2.1 BSc Hon degree in Outdoor Studies. Following University Pat started his own garden maintenance company, then attended Reaseheath College to pursue qualifications in arboriculture.

Pat gained a Plant Health Care Technician position at Bartlett Tree Experts. In this position, Pat provided a high-level, valuable service for Bartlett Tree Experts' clients. In 2017, Pat progressed to the role of Arborist Representative and prides himself in providing the best possible solutions to his clients' tree care issues while also establishing long-term client relationships.

Patrick enjoys cricket, keeping fit, listening to podcasts, camping, and spending time with his young family.
