Meet Your Bartlett Arborist Representative

Rob Cosgrove

Robert started his career in arboriculture in 2006. He joined Bartlett Tree Experts in 2012 as a Crew Leader. He advanced quickly within the company, being promoted to the Arborist Representative role at the Sevenoaks office and then also the Local Office Manager position.

Robert has an ABC level 2 certification in Arboriculture as well as PA1 & PA6 certificates. He has a TRAQ certificate (Tree Risk Assessors Qualification), and the PTI certificate (Professional Tree Inspector). Robert specialises in helping clients' trees thrive by delivering the best possible solutions for their tree care, including addressing insect, disease, and soil issues. He has also undertaken large planting jobs with great success. He is dedicated to building relationships with his customers and providing them with expert advice.

Robert enjoys spending time with his wife and sons at their home in Hildenborough, Kent. He is a sports fanatic and a member at a local golf club where he plays often with his friends.
