Meet Your Bartlett Arborist Representative

Ben Hartranft

Ben is a lifelong Pennsylvania resident who discovered arboriculture after college graduation. He has over 15 year's experience with Bartlett Tree Experts, where he learned about tree and shrub care from the ground up.

As an ISA Certified Arborist and a Plant Health Care Specialist, he takes pride in delivering quality tree care with exceptional customer service. Ben's "hands-on" approach to arboriculture and his eagerness to learn, coupled with Bartlett's scientific approach to tree care, makes him a valuable resource to his clients.

Ben enjoys speaking to local garden clubs and nursery groups, giving him the opportunity to share his expertise and give back to the community.

Ben is happily married to Tracey and proud father to their young son Lincoln. In his spare time, he enjoys woodworking and is a novice bonsai enthusiast.
