Meet Your Bartlett Arborist Representative

Paul G. Foster

Paul Foster has been involved in the tree care business ever since graduating from High School in 1974. He took a year off to work full time for a local tree care company before attending college at Towson State University. After earning a Bachelor of Science degree at Towson he joined Bartlett Tree Experts in 1986. Paul is an active member of the Maryland Arborist Association, and served as their President. A Certified Arborist with the International Society of Arboriculture he also served as the President of the Mid-Atlantic Chapter. Paul enjoys speaking to garden clubs and recently gave a presentation to the Masters Gardeners of Anne Arundel County. He is the head of his town's Tree Committee caring for town arboriculture projects. He enjoys involvement in local landscape restoration projects along the Chesapeake Bay critical area watershed.

He is an avid runner, completing over twenty five marathons (the capstone being the Boston Marathon in 2012), and is a member of the Board of Directors of the fourth largest running club (RRCA) in the country.
