SCIENTIFIC TREE CARE SINCE 1907

Meet Your Bartlett Arborist Representative

Scott Tapp

Scott Tapp has been involved in tree care for over 25 years, starting his career at Bartlett as a plant health care technician and tree crew foreman. His interest in Bartlett's scientific approach to tree and shrub care led him to become a Certified Arborist with the International Society of Arboriculture. When Scott decided to pursue a position as an Arborist/Representative he became a New Jersey Licensed Tree Expert. He is also TRAQ qualified (Tree Risk Assessment Qualification) and a TCIA Certified Tree Care Safety Professional. Scott represents Bartlett Tree Experts to all of its clients in Mercer and southern Somerset County. As an active member of the tree care industry Scott is the past-president of the New Jersey Arborists/International Society of Arboriculture and past NJAISA Arborist of the Year (2014). Scott continues to be involved by representing New Jersey on the Council of Representatives to the International Society of Arboriculture and Chairs the New Jersey Tree Climbing Championships each year.
